We ask in all earnestness and sincerity that you who owe us will come forward and settle. It costs us good money to give you the paper. We appreciate your business, but we must have money if we run, so do not let your subscription accumulate. We are going to look for YOU to call and settle this week. The little amount U O is small and wouldn't discomfit you but a thousand such accounts spell a year's work with us. Do not think we can do with what the other fellow pays because he has not paid a cent. We want to ask every one of you who are reasonable, and most of you are, to call when in town and see us and spare us the trouble of hunting you up. Please don't forget.

Marietta R. F. D. 2.

Well, we are still picking cotton.

Mrs. Tom Smith and children are visitors at Mr. J. H. Hughes this week.

The meeting started at Jones school house Sunday night. They are expecting a good time.

Mrs. P. B. Griffin accompanied by her son, went to Ware Shoals recently in answer to a call to the bedside of her grand son, who is reported critically ill. The little fellow is improving at this writing.

Mr. M. A. Simmons has his new home completed which is a nice little home indeed.

We were sorry to hear of Mr. Tom Loper's house and household goods being destroyed by fire recently. The reports were that he lost $45 in money and a bale of cotton besides the house things.

The wedding bells are beginning to ring for Christmas.

Mr. Grover Hunt visited his uncle Mr. Butler Jones recently.

Mr. Jim Julien visited at Mr. Joe Hughes recently.

Mr. Holvert Jones visited his father last Sunday and also another one of Mr. W. M. Jones' sons, Walker, was a visitor to his parents Sunday.

Mr. Walker Freeman is critically ill.

The singings at Oolenoy and Griffin were not the "pink of perfection" that they should have been. But were enjoyable "alle samee."

The time of year has come for renting and moving and some of our people are commencing to move.

Well I guess I'd better ring off. Lonely Sweetheart

GRAND NEW DISCOVERY Will Surely Stop That Cough.

Does Not Stimulate

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. It is not a strong drink. No reaction after you stop using it. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic and alternative. We wish you would ask your doctor about this. He knows. Trust him. Do as he says. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

What are Ayer's Pills? Liver Pills. How long have they been sold? Nearly sixty years. Do doctors recommend them? Ask your own doctor and find out.
